Jack is a really good friend and a great guy who wants nothing more than to relax next to you or take a walk. Jack is 6 years young and full of life! He has energy but also a great mellowness. You will love Jack!

Jack is very bright and loves being around people. He is great on a leash and house trained. He gets along well with other dogs. Everyone is in love with Jack and hopes for a gentle, warm and happy home for him. Jack is a sweet, gentle soul who still has many years to be your best friend.

Jack deserves a chance at a great home and a loving family. Are you that family??? Please don't pass him by and assume that someone ELSE will surely adopt him, let it be YOU!!!! By adopting a rescued dog you give an innocent creature the gift of life and love, and in return they bring new life and love into your home. Please open your heart to Jack today... he would love a permanent loving home!

To adopt an animal from us, you must complete an adoption application and be approved. The adoption fee is $75.00 for dogs.

Jockey

Sex: Male
Age: 9 years
Breed: German Shepherd
Color: Black & Tan
Hello, I am a savvy senior with pep in my step! I am a big cuddly bear that likes to chill out with humans and my peers. I am an older fella, but have lots of spunk still in me that I would like to share with a family of my own. I am intelligent, and easy going. I am absolutely gorgeous (as everyone keeps saying!) and am unbelievably charming.

Panda

Sex: Female
Age: 1 year
Breed: Domestic Short Hair
Panda is a pleasurable, and delightful kitty. She enjoys play time with her feline companions, and adores children. She is curious, and lovable. Panda is an extrovert and enjoys attention.

She is a true treasure! She isn't declawed, but is well mannered and doesn't scratch anything she isn't supposed to. Panda is current on vaccinations, and she is spayed.

Horseback Safaris

Horseback Safaris - Standard one-hour, two-hour, or three-hour horseback safaris are available daily. Horseback Safaris can be arranged for riders with varying levels of experience. All guests should be at least 12 years of age; 10 years of age is an acceptable age with proven riding experience. Guests weighing more than 275 pounds will need to be assessed by our Equestrian Director before they are allowed to take a Horseback Safari. Call-in reservations are recommended in order to assure that we and our horses are ready for you.

A favorite with visitors is our two-night "Crescent J Cattle Drive Weekend Safari," which includes some training in Florida Cowhunter skills of ridin', ropin' and cow cuttin'. (Florida cattlemen weren't "cowboys" because hunting those wild Spanish-descent cattle in Florida's woods and swamps was a man's job, they said.) Choice of campground depends on weather, type of group and recommendation of the riding instructors.

Another favorite is similar, but shorter – an Overnight Trail Ride Safari combined with a next-day "Rawhide Roundup." More time is spent riding the wilderness trails of Forever Florida and learning about nature, less on cowpoke skills.

Corporate Co-workers, Schoolteachers, Professional Club, Flying Clubs, School Groups, Church Groups, Families, Friends, Scout troops or multi-troop Camporees – there are activities and a campground on Forever Florida or the Crescent J Ranch that are just right for a bonding experience. See the Facilities and Events page for more details.

From a small primitive one-troop Scout Camp on the Crescent J that has been used by Girl and Boy Scouts for more than 30 years, we expanded to a remote but up-scale campground 'way back in the wilderness of Forever Florida, then added two campgrounds in between and most recently, a large area "up front" (near the highway) that comfortably holds up to twenty Scout troops for a big Camporee.

Variations on these basic campouts and safaris can be worked out with our staff.

Fort Myers Family's Mini Stallion's Life Cut Short by Neighbor's Pet Deer

Hello! My name is Cindy and I would like to tell you a story about a miniature horse. His name was Rowdy and he was 4 years old. He lived a happy life with the Searle family in N. Ft. Myers. Rowdy was a real sweetheart. He was trained to ride small children around on his back and he could pull a cart. He would even bow for a treat and smile at you when you'd pet him. Rowdy's parents were Grand Champions in the miniature horse world and well respected.

Unfortunately early one morning before sunrise the Searle family was awakened by the loud and erratic behavior of their dogs. Mr. Searle got out of bed, grabbed his flash light and went outside to see what was wrong. He found his dogs barking wildly at Rowdy's paddock.

When he shined the flashlight into the corral he came face to face with his neighbor's pet deer, a six point buck who was attacking little Rowdy. Mr. Searle ran back into the house to get his gun. He screamed to his wife to call their neighbor and tell them their deer was killing their horse. When Mr. Searle returned to Rowdy's corral he found the deer gone and Rowdy down on the ground bleeding badly. Things did not look good for poor Rowdy.

Upon receiving the phone call the neighbors came and saw what their deer had done to little Rowdy. They said how sorry they were and in the heat of the moment offered to pay for the animal. They did not stay long however. They did not even offer to help bury Rowdy.

At about 5:20 am on November 19, 2005 I received a phone call from my friend, Mrs. Searle. She was so distraught that I could barely understand her. I knew something was wrong though because no one calls that early in the morning without bad news. After a few moments she managed to tell me this unbelievable thing. I went directly to her home, not more than a six minute ride from my own home. When I arrived at the Searle residence I tried to comfort my friends and understand what happened.

As the sun rose and daylight shown down, a grizzly scene was revealed. It was immediately apparent that poor Rowdy would not survive due to multiple puncture wounds. Another friend and I tried to figure out what to do. We called 911 but they would not help us. We called animal control but they did not answer their phone. I guess they're closed on Saturdays. So we called the Sheriff's Department who referred us to Fish and Game. We called them. They themselves were not sure how to handle this case. We got a lot of, "I'll call you back." After many hours passed we still had no help. Not knowing what else to do we called several news stations. Only one of them would even answer their phone. They wanted the story, however, and agreed to come out. We finally got a call from a wildlife officer who said he was also coming.

While we waited for the officer and the reporters to arrive we tried to piece together the events of Rowdy's death. We found blood and hair from one end of his paddock to the other. It was on the fence posts, on the insulators, the wire and streaks of it lined the back of the barn walls. Hoof prints were abundant both horse and deer. There was no evidence of a downed fence. The perimeter fence was constructed of hog wire, board and electric fence. All were intact. The deer had obviously jumped in and out of the corral, but there was no escape for poor little Rowdy. You could tell that he had tried but was unsuccessful.

When the news crew arrived so did the officer. They did a story and he filed a report. The owners of the deer were issued citations from the state for other exotic animals but denied ownership of the deer. Due to photographic evidence though and testimony from additional neighbors, charges were filed against the owners of the deer by the state of Florida. The State Attorney's office did not file a petition for restitution of the animal in the allotted time. So the case was thrown out of court on a technicality. We have the Octagon Sanctuary to thank for the actual capture and removal of the deer. For that we send them our gratitude.

I want to leave you with this. What happened here was a preventable tragedy that should not go unpunished. The Searle's will file suit but it's really not about the money. It's the principle. We simply must take a stand and hold people responsible for their animals. After all our animals count on us for just that. Rowdy was assaulted on his own property in his own electrified paddock. Rowdy did not deserve to die this way.

Sincerely yours,

Cindy (Friend of Rowdy & Family)

BBQ Benefit August 19th

A BBQ will be held on Saturday August 19th 4:00 pm at the Searle home 9900 Quail Hollow Rd. in NFM. We will be serving venison in Rowdy's honor. B.Y.O.B. All donations to help file a civil suit will be accepted, none too big or too small. Any leftover proceeds will be donated to the Octagon Sanctuary as they are the ones who finally captured the rogue deer.

Horse tales is an area where original, unpublished works by local writers and artists will be featured.

If you have a short story, poem, work of art or anything that you've created and are interested in seeing in print, please submit to Everything Equine. Everything Equine and local businesses provide this opportunity for children and adults alike to show their creative abilities and talents to the entire community. Please limit your submissions to horse related tales that coincide with an equestrian or farm oriented way of life.

locations in Florida.

Everything Equine's FAQs.

1. How many issues are distributed each month?

10,000 copies are currently printed and distributed to over 200 locations, but as demand increases, so does the number of copies printed.

2. Can I have more than one photo in a classified ad?

Yes, 2 photos of the same item can go in a LARGE ad.

3. Can more than one item be sold in a classified ad?

Yes, if it is just text (no photo) or if they are closely related and being sold together. (a pair of mules or horse w/ cart)

4. What is the difference between a classified and business ad?

Classified ads are to sell a single item. They may not list any business information including business names and web addresses. Services, such as stud or farrier, fall into the business category.

5. I wrote an article, can it be published?

Yes, factual articles intended to educate the reader may be published, space permitting, free of charge as long as they do not promote a business. Please cite your sources when submitting an article for publication. Everything Equine reserves the right to edit submissions. If your article promotes a business, then it qualifies as advertisement and business rates would apply.

6. I would like to share something that happened to me. Is there a place for that?

Yes, Horse Tales is a place to share your experiences, poems, drawings and whatever else you would like to share. A good rule of thumb for a proper submission for Horse Tales is to keep it in 1st person. Write using, I, me, we, not he, she or they.

7. What are your office hours?

Office hours? What are those? I have a home office, so my office hours are whenever I am near the phone and/or computer. I am in and out during the day, so if you do not get an answer on the phone, please leave a message. Also, do not be surprised if I pick up the phone on a Sunday afternoon. It is a rare occasion when I am not at the computer late at night, so if you send an email at that time, you probably will get an immediate response.
