Why the CUMBERLAND PLATEAU?

Tennessee's Land of Adventure

The Cumberland Plateau is a special place. Much of it is still wild, little touched by humanity. And in the vastness of the Cumberland area you leave behind the burden and haste of our modern world. Here on the Cumberland Plateau worries are forgotten amidst quiet, unhurried time for contemplation, where one finds reminders, tangible and otherwise, of the strong links joining yesteryear with today.

You could very well be among the 70 million Baby Boomers that are reaching retirement. Do you know how you are going to spend those years enjoying the excellent quality of life you so richly deserve? May we suggest the beautiful Cumberland Plateau where the outdoor splendor is unsurpassed.

For the past 30 years the Cumberland Plateau area has been constantly ranked in the top five places to live in the United States. There are several reasons for this. First of all, the plateau has always possessed the best that Mother Nature has to offer. But there's more. It also has one of the lowest cost of living areas in the country. There is no state income tax. The property taxes are low and so are the utility and insurance rates.

Tennessee has the lowest state and local taxes in the nation, while New York has the highest, according to the Massachusetts Taxpayers Foundation.

The 2002 survey results are ranked by how much residents pay per $1,000 of income:

1. New York - $130.79
2. Maine - 130.16
3. Wyoming - 121.97
4. Hawaii - $121.97
5. Wisconsin - $117.26
- 50. Tennessee - $84

In addition, there are four distinct, yet mild, seasons in an area that is the geographical center of the Eastern United States. That means Florida, New York, Washington, D.C., and many other popular destinations are just a days drive away.

How tall will my young horse get?

Q:

I own a 14-hand Irish Sport Horse. He's turning 4 in December but I'm not sure how tall he's going to get. He is wearing a full horse size bridle and head collar. He has a thin build and very long legs for his height. Do you have any idea how tall he will be?

A:

It is really hard for me to tell you without actually seeing him. However, there is a way you can measure and estimate his mature height.

Take a measuring tape, string, baling twine, etc. and put one end on the elbow and the other end on the ground. Then, keeping the one end on the elbow, take the ground end and extend it to above his withers (you might need another person to help you do this). Where the twine ends is "supposed" to be a horse's mature height. Since horses are supposed to be equal in length from their elbows to the ground and in the width of their barrels, this method should give you at least a rough estimate.

Answer provided by Carey Williams, Ph.D., Rutgers Cooperative Extension.

Horseback Safaris

Horseback Safaris - Standard one-hour, two-hour, or three-hour horseback safaris are available daily. Horseback Safaris can be arranged for riders with varying levels of experience. All guests should be at least 12 years of age; 10 years of age is an acceptable age with proven riding experience. Guests weighing more than 275 pounds will need to be assessed by our Equestrian Director before they are allowed to take a Horseback Safari. Call-in reservations are recommended in order to assure that we and our horses are ready for you.

A favorite with visitors is our two-night "Crescent J Cattle Drive Weekend Safari," which includes some training in Florida Cowhunter skills of ridin', ropin' and cow cuttin'. (Florida cattlemen weren't "cowboys" because hunting those wild Spanish-descent cattle in Florida's woods and swamps was a man's job, they said.) Choice of campground depends on weather, type of group and recommendation of the riding instructors.

Another favorite is similar, but shorter - an Overnight Trail Ride Safari combined with a next-day "Rawhide Roundup." More time is spent riding the wilderness trails of Forever Florida and learning about nature, less on cowpoke skills.

Corporate Co-workers, Schoolteachers, Professional Club, Flying Clubs, School Groups, Church Groups, Families, Friends, Scout troops or multi-troop Camporees - there are activities and a campground on Forever Florida or the Crescent J Ranch that are just right for a bonding experience. See the Facilities and Events page for more details.

From a small primitive one-troop Scout Camp on the Crescent J that has been used by Girl and Boy Scouts for more than 30 years, we expanded to a remote but up-scale campground 'way back in the wilderness of Forever Florida, then added two campgrounds in between and most recently, a large area "up front" (near the highway) that comfortably holds up to twenty Scout troops for a big Camporee.

Variations on these basic campouts and safaris can be worked out with our staff.
