Disease Resurfaces in Florida after 28 Years

Equine Piroplasmosis Situation Update

August 21, 2008

The Florida State Veterinarian's Office is continuing to investigate the Equine Piroplasmosis (EP) case in Manatee County. While Tropical Storm Fay delayed investigation efforts earlier in the week, additional samples were collected and tick inspections performed yesterday. Further horse testing and tick surveillance will continue over the weekend.

Currently the only premises with evidence of EP is the one index premise in Manatee County. There have been no additional clinical cases reported at this time.

While no states have restricted movement of Florida horses, Canada has advised the United States Department of Agriculture they will not accept horses originating from Manatee County, effective immediately. This ban will stay in effect until further notice.

August 18, 2008

Further testing on samples from horses on the index premises in Manatee County, have indicated that four additional horses on the premises are infected with the organism that causes Equine Piroplasmosis (EP). The four positive horses were stabled in the barn with the initial clinical horse. All other horses on the premises, which are managed separately from the horses in the barn, were negative on testing. In addition, 20 ticks found at the premises were identified as the Gulf Coast tick (Amblyomma maculatum), which has not been shown to transmit the disease between horses.

The preliminary investigation indicates that the transmission on the index premises may have been caused by use of common needles between horses and not spread naturally by a tick vector. The Department is continuing its investigation including additional horse and tick surveillance of the area. As a precaution, 3 adjacent premises and 1 contact premises have been placed under quarantine pending further sample collection and testing.

Bronson Announces Detection Of Horse Disease

TALLAHASSEE –Florida Agriculture and Consumer Services Commissioner Charles H. Bronson announced today that a Manatee County horse has been diagnosed with Equine Piroplasmosis (EP) - an animal disease that the U.S. has been considered free of since 1988. Blood and tissue testing of a seven-year-old gelding that had been euthanized after a three-week illness confirmed the presence of the disease in the animal.

State officials immediately quarantined the premises in which the horse resided, as well as two adjacent properties containing horses pending a determination of their status.

An ongoing investigation is being conducted by the State Veterinarian's Office to determine the source of the disease and whether it has spread beyond the immediate area where the infected animal was housed.

EP

Equine Piroplasmosis (EP) is a blood-borne parasitic disease primarily transmitted to horses by ticks or contaminated needles. The disease was eradicated from Florida in the 1980's, and the tick species believed to transmit EP in other countries have not been identified in Florida in many years. This disease is not directly contagious from one horse to another but requires direct blood transfer. Human infection with equine piroplasmosis is extremely rare. Acutely affected horses can have depression, fever, anemia (decreased red blood cells) jaundiced (yellow) mucous membranes and low platelet counts. EP can also cause horses to have roughened hair coats, constipation, and colic. In its milder form, the disease causes horses to appear weak and show lack of appetite. Some horses become chronic carriers of the disease.

ADVICE TO VETS AND HORSEOWNERS

Veterinarians, horse owners, and others in the equine industry in Florida are asked to monitor their horses carefully and contact their veterinarian if they suspect this disease. Because it is a disease that the U.S. has been free of for two decades, suspected cases must be reported to the Office of the State Veterinarian by law.

With the exception of the quarantined premises, there are no EP movement restrictions on horses within Florida or between Florida and other states. Horses entering Florida from other countries with Equine Piroplasmosis will continue to be tested prior to and following entry according to the current rule.

WHAT HORSEOWNERS SHOULD DO

1. Monitor your horse for the presence of ticks. Use commercially available topical products labeled for ticks if your horse is in an area where tick infestation is a problem. Most of these products are synthetic pyrethrins. Include an avermectin product in your deworming program to provide systemic treatment for ticks. Ask your veterinarian if you are unsure.
2. If you find large numbers of ticks or suspect piroplasmosis, please contact your veterinarian.
3. Do not share needles between animals during the administration of any medication or vaccinations. EP and other diseases can be spread by the introduction of blood cells from an infected animal into an uninfected animal during routine administration of injectable medications.
4. Continue your normal equine activities.

Additional updates and information will be posted to the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, Division of Animal Industry web site at: <http://www.doacs.state.fl.us/ai/>.

What can I put in my horse's feed to mask the flavor of supplements?

My gelding will not eat his feed at all if it has supplements added to it. I have tried mixing them into a ball with molasses and alfalfa crumbs, but he will not touch it. Do you have any suggestions for getting him to take this supplement? Is there anything I can mix it with that he might eat?

If molasses doesn't work, try applesauce in his grain with the supplement! That might help. He also might need a few days to get used to the new taste. If you don't give him a choice between food with or without the supplement, after a couple of days he will figure out that he has to eat it!

Ode To A Spider

By Half Vast Conni

Giant spider webs laced from tree to tree,
Brother Banana-Spider staring down at me!
With extreme caution I must ride the trail,
For lurking Banana-Spiders make me wail!

There's thousands of them or so it seems!
My voicebox emits blood-curdling screams!
I combat you with my broom in hand,
And cringe in horror if on me you land!

Your web, on horseback, too late I see!
And my frenzied motions add to your glee!
Did you move to the country "on a lark?"
Why can't you just live on "banana stalk"???

Horse and I, in haste, your presence depart,
In case you bite and leave a mark!
Your colors-brown and bright yellow-
Look like they would kill a fellow!!!

So scared of you, I foresee, myself I hurt,
Horse will rear; my death will come in pile of dirt!
Or I'll smother in your web, laced from tree to tree,
With Brother Spider staring down at me??????

My fans all know that I'm quite daft,
This rhyme I wrote to make them laugh,
My stories a false image cast,
My soul is old and not "half vast!"

Spider: You and I know what others don't see!
There's space for you and space for me!
The Great Spirit took time-created thee!
You have a purpose so I leave you be!

Thank you!

From Ariel Folk

On August 9th, my horse and I held a fund raising event. We were at the new Tractor Supply in Naples, Florida. Our goal was to raise enough funds to have a belt buckle mold made so that the Gypsy Vanner Horse Society could have some very special buckles made to give out as awards. The event was a lot of fun, I met a lot of new friends and Joy, my horse, loved all the attention. When we left Tractor Supply I had raised all but $275.00 of my goal. If you would like to contribute, you can still do so by mailing a check in any amount to GVHS P.O. Box 177 Marlboro, NY 12542. Please note on your check that it is for the (Belt buckle).

Thank you to all of the people that came out to see me and Joy and those who sent in a donation. Thank you Tractor Supply for allowing

Joy and me to visit and extra thanks for having us set up under the roof that kept us dry during the storm. PS, Joy says thanks for the shavings you put down for her!!

Horse tales is an area where original, unpublished works by local writers and artists will be featured. If you have a short story, poem, work of art or anything that you've created and are interested in seeing in print, please submit to Everything Equine. Everything Equine provides this opportunity for children and adults alike to show their creative abilities and talents to the entire community. Please limit your submissions to horse related tales that coincide with an equestrian or farm oriented way of life.

Horseback Safaris

Horseback Safaris - Standard one-hour, two-hour, or three-hour horseback safaris are available daily. Horseback Safaris can be arranged for riders with varying levels of experience. All guests should be at least 12 years of age; 10 years of age is an acceptable age with proven riding experience. Guests weighing more than 275 pounds will need to be assessed by our Equestrian Director before they are allowed to take a Horseback Safari. Call-in reservations are recommended in order to assure that we and our horses are ready for you.

A favorite with visitors is our two-night "Crescent J Cattle Drive Weekend Safari," which includes some training in Florida Cowhunter skills of ridin', ropin' and cow cuttin'. (Florida cattlemen weren't "cowboys" because hunting those wild Spanish-descent cattle in Florida's woods and swamps was a man's job, they said.) Choice of campground depends on weather, type of group and recommendation of the riding instructors.

Another favorite is similar, but shorter - an Overnight Trail Ride Safari combined with a next-day "Rawhide Roundup." More time is spent riding the wilderness trails of Forever Florida and learning about nature, less on cowpoke skills.

Corporate Co-workers, Schoolteachers, Professional Club, Flying Clubs, School Groups, Church Groups, Families, Friends, Scout troops or multi-troop Camporees - there are activities and a campground on Forever Florida or the Crescent J Ranch that are just right for a bonding experience. See the Facilities and Events page for more details.

From a small primitive one-troop Scout Camp on the Crescent J that has been used by Girl and Boy Scouts for more than 30 years, we expanded to a remote but up-scale campground 'way back in the wilderness of Forever Florida, then added two campgrounds in between and most recently, a large area "up front" (near the highway) that comfortably holds up to twenty Scout troops for a big Camporee.

Variations on these basic campouts and safaris can be worked out with our staff.
