Lost? Missing? Stolen?

If you are in the unfortunate situation to have lost a dog or cat, or have a horse stolen, Everything Equine would like to help. Please send a photo and information about the lost or stolen animal. It will be included free of charge on a space permitting basis. You may also go to www.everything-equine.com and click the link to the Bulletin Board. You may post your lost or stolen pet on the message board.

Q) What did one horse say to the other horse?

A) The pace is familiar but I can't remember the mane.

Keller is just the cutest boy you could come across! He is a 5 month old homozygous merle Australian Shepherd. That's a fancy way of saying that he is from a merle to merle breeding, which often results in defects such as hearing & vision loss. Keller has both. We think he is completely deaf but has some vision. But don't tell this ball of fluff that he's handicapped! He is the most happy boy on the planet!

A typical puppy and full of play, Keller is a very kind boy, loves hugs and kisses, does well with other dogs and cats. Keller finds his way around quite well, but will bump into things if he is in a new environment. Keller is looking for a home that will embrace his disabilities. Having another dog around to be his seeing eye dog would be wonderful. If you can find a special place in your heart and can give Keller a safe, life-long home, please contact us.

To adopt an animal from us, you must complete an adoption application and be approved. The adoption fee is $75.00 for dogs. All animals available for adoption are spayed/ neutered and up-to-date on all vaccinations. To meet Keller, please call us at 450-6301 or go to ccalrescue.org

WHO CAN OPEN THE GATE? Profiling in the Horse World

A question has just been asked amid the herd: "Who can open the gate?" Here's what they say ...

Lipizzaner: "No need for opening it! When are you all going to learn how to fly?!"

Thoroughbred: "Let's wait for the gate to open - when the bell rings!"

Paint: "Yeah, what he said! Na na na na na na!"

Arabian: "You'll have to get somebody else to do it. My nails aren't dry!"

Quarter Horse: "Maybe if I push on it with my hindquarters, I could open it?"

Standardbred: "Pity on all of you. I'll figure it out. Just give me some time."

Polo Pony: "Wait a minute ... let me get my stick and give it a few whacks."

Shetland Pony: "Let me at it! I'll break the stupid thing and then you all can get outta my face."

Mules: "Oh, let's just pack it in and call it a day."

Saddlebred: "Now, now. I'll open it, if someone could help me with my shoes!"

Friesian: "I'll do it! But do you think it will mess up my hair?"

Mustang: "What's a gate?"

Belgian: "Step back! You all aren't strong enough to do it. I'll do it. Oh, but what if I break it?"

Morgan: "There, there. I'll do it for you. No need to have such a big fit. Peace be with all of you. Is there anything else I could do for you after I get done with the gate?"

Appaloosa: "Oh, hush all of you! Ya big bunch of sissies. No one is leaving 'till I say so."

Percheron: "I already opened the gate while you all have been arguing! I even went down the next row and opened all the other gates. So it'll be a while before I have to listen to all of you argue again!"

(answers, including word bank, on page 14)

By the time you read this, Brittany will have made her trip. For an update on her success visit www.pthorsemanship.com.

My name is Brittany McVey and I am seventeen years old. As far back as I can remember I have always had a love for animals, especially horses. I used to ask for a horse for my birthday every year, and although it never happened until I turned 14, I just kept on wishing. My birthday is on August 25 and for my eighteenth birthday, I plan to not only get a new horse for my birthday, I plan to rescue five of them from an auction where the most predictable outcome is slaughter.

Even though the meat is not sold or eaten by Americans, it is processed here and sent to foreign countries, such as Belgium, France, Germany, and Italy. The most attended auction is in New Holland, PA., where between 200 and 350 horses are auctioned there every Monday. America's horse has carried us into battle, protected us from blinding snow and raging rivers (and??). America's horse has taken us from New England to Utah, and never asked us why. The Indians of the early settlements protected and worshipped their horses. These animals need protection from foreign meat markets.

The Slaughter issue is now up for vote on the House floor. HR 503. If it passes, we will have a surplus of 80,000 horses per year. What do we do with them? I have a plan and so does the rest of America.

My trip will begin on August 25, 2006, from N Ft Myers, FL and end at New Holland, PA. There I will attend the auction, with a friend of the family who has been working in rescue for over a decade. From there, the horses will receive vaccinations, get their health certificates and their Coggins done. I will then be back on the road, leaving the horses at specific approved Equine Rescues on my way back to Ft. Myers. I need to raise funds in order to purchase these horses. These rescued horses will be rehabbed and re-homed. Excess funds will go back into a fund called "Forget Me Not " fund. This is used to pull horses again. The funding gets recycled. With your donation, a life is saved, time after time, one after another. The horses get the much-needed love and care they deserve and you walk away with a phenomenal feeling of power, that you have saved a life.

Your donation is also worthy of a tax receipt from a non-profit organization. In conjunction with this rescue project, you will be receiving yours from "Pure Thoughts, Foal rescue". The contact there is Jennifer Swanson. She has been instrumental in helping me put the word out, and supporting this effort, by sponsoring my project.

I can do "Bring them Home Brittany" With contributions. Please visit, www.pthorsemanship.com to bring these horses home!

Stolen Tack

I board my horses in horse country, Miami. Towards the end of July our tack room and other storage trailers were broken into. Only Western Tack was stolen:

Circle Y Pleasure Saddle, dark self tanned leather with brandy color suede seat, never oiled. On the side where you mount there are prominent scratch marks from someone's belt buckle. The horn is rawhide lace with the Circle Y silver mark. The back of the seat is rolled with silver metal.

Textan/Hereford Roping saddle, medium color leather, black suede seat and aluminum stirrups engraved on one side.

New Black Saddle, has some German silver.

4 new working bridles with bits and 5/8" reins were also taken. (3) of the bridles/reins had never been used. The bits attached were: 6" shank snaffle, snaffle twisted wire D-ring, and (2) correction bits with medium ports and swivel shanks.

Stanley Mobile Footlocker

BMB halter, green with gold overlay with 'EL CRIOLLO' embroidered, and the matching lead.

WE ARE CONVINCED THAT THEY WILL SHOW UP IN AN AUCTION.

Apparently it has happened all over, but no one is filing police reports. We have filed with the police and have a case number.

I hope it does not happen at your barn, but if it does, please call the police.

If you have seen any of the above described tack, please contact me at (305)951-9005.

Thank you for your help,

Celi

Horseback Safaris

Horseback Safaris - Standard one-hour, two-hour, or three-hour horseback safaris are available daily. Horseback Safaris can be arranged for riders with varying levels of experience. All guests should be at least 12 years of age; 10 years of age is an acceptable age with proven riding experience. Guests weighing more than 275 pounds will need to be assessed by our Equestrian Director before they are allowed to take a Horseback Safari. Call-in reservations are recommended in order to assure that we and our horses are ready for you.

A favorite with visitors is our two-night "Crescent J Cattle Drive Weekend Safari," which includes some training in Florida Cowhunter skills of ridin', ropin' and cow cuttin'. (Florida cattlemen weren't "cowboys" because hunting those wild Spanish-descent cattle in Florida's woods and swamps was a man's job, they said.) Choice of campground depends on weather, type of group and recommendation of the riding instructors.

Another favorite is similar, but shorter – an Overnight Trail Ride Safari combined with a next-day "Rawhide Roundup." More time is spent riding the wilderness trails of Forever Florida and learning about nature, less on cowpoke skills.

Corporate Co-workers, Schoolteachers, Professional Club, Flying Clubs, School Groups, Church Groups, Families, Friends, Scout troops or multi-troop Camporees – there are activities and a campground on Forever Florida or the Crescent J Ranch that are just right for a bonding experience. See the Facilities and Events page for more details.

From a small primitive one-troop Scout Camp on the Crescent J that has been used by Girl and Boy Scouts for more than 30 years, we expanded to a remote but up-scale campground way back in the wilderness of Forever Florida, then added two campgrounds in between and most recently, a large area "up front" (near the highway) that comfortably holds up to twenty Scout troops for a big Camporee.

Variations on these basic campouts and safaris can be worked out with our staff.

Remember Carly

10-1-87 – 5-8-04

by Carol McNulty

Too good for this world,

Jesus took her out.

No more pain, misery,
or tears.

Happy, not just a day,
a month, or years,

But for eternity now.

She got to see
heaven,

It was, "Oh God,
Wow!

Don't send me back,
oh please, I'll stay here forever

Never make me leave."

God let her have her way.

She just really wanted to stay,

Mom begged and pleaded for

God to send her back,

But she's so happy now.

No more ever to suffer lack.

Carly, I love you. I can't wait to see you again.

Love mom

Drawing by Elizabeth Halperin, age 6.

A Gem

By Diane K. Linster

Jim! I found him

In a southern enclosure, in a pen.

Don't recall why or when

Red in color, too slim.

Top coat was rough and dim

But through the large oval lens,

Saw the brilliant heart within.

A transparent value gem,

Through the layers of abuse

And, the thickness of skin.

Knew this Jim could be of use,

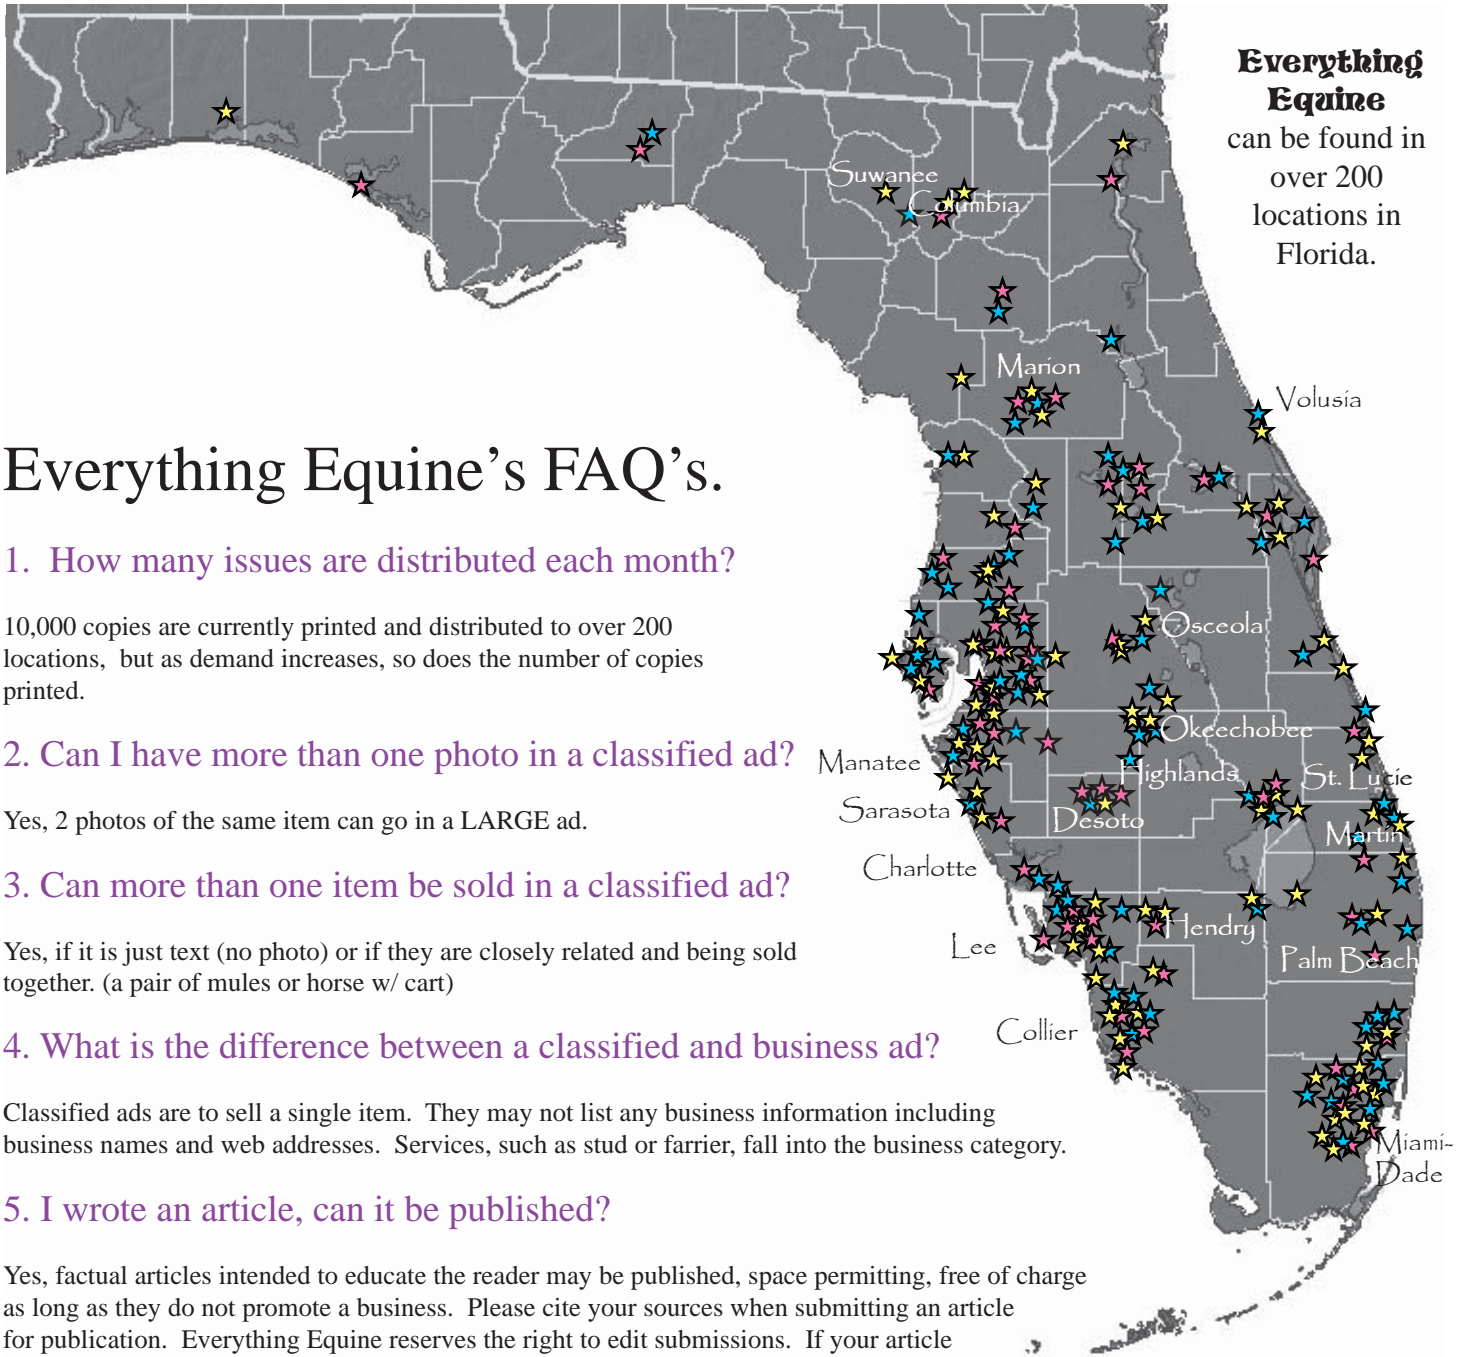

Lapidary, struck in

With precision cut, with little force,

Lo, emerged an Olympian
Thoroughbred Horse!

Horse tales is an area where original, unpublished works by local writers and artists will be featured.

If you have a short story, poem, work of art or anything that you've created and are interested in seeing in print, please submit to Everything Equine. Everything Equine and local businesses provide this opportunity for children and adults alike to show their creative abilities and talents to the entire community. Please limit your submissions to horse related tales that coincide with an equestrian or farm oriented way of life.

Everything Equine's FAQ's.

1. How many issues are distributed each month?

10,000 copies are currently printed and distributed to over 200 locations, but as demand increases, so does the number of copies printed.

2. Can I have more than one photo in a classified ad?

Yes, 2 photos of the same item can go in a LARGE ad.

3. Can more than one item be sold in a classified ad?

Yes, if it is just text (no photo) or if they are closely related and being sold together. (a pair of mules or horse w/ cart)

4. What is the difference between a classified and business ad?

Classified ads are to sell a single item. They may not list any business information including business names and web addresses. Services, such as stud or farrier, fall into the business category.

5. I wrote an article, can it be published?

Yes, factual articles intended to educate the reader may be published, space permitting, free of charge as long as they do not promote a business. Please cite your sources when submitting an article for publication. Everything Equine reserves the right to edit submissions. If your article promotes a business, then it qualifies as advertisement and business rates would apply.

6. I would like to share something that happened to me. Is there a place for that?

Yes, Horse Tales is a place to share your experiences, poems, drawings and whatever else you would like to share. A good rule of thumb for a proper submission for Horse Tales is to keep it in 1st person. Write using, I, me, we, not he, she or they.

7. What are your office hours?

Office hours? What are those? I have a home office, so my office hours are whenever I am near the phone and/or computer. I am in and out during the day, so if you do not get an answer on the phone, please leave a message. Also, do not be surprised if I pick up the phone on a Sunday afternoon. It is a rare occasion when I am not at the computer late at night, so if you send an email at that time, you probably will get an immediate response.

"May 2004 I was told by my farrier and vet that I needed to put my horse down and there were no other 'humane' options. My ... horse had foundered so badly that his coffin bone had rotated to 16°. Dee Matlock, of Singing Springs, told me ... that Gluquestrian was the best joint supplement on the market, and that if it wouldn't help nothing would. ... I tried it, and ... I saw results. It really worked! ... My horse is sound! I am riding him again! Now I'm adding the Total Mobility EQ for the contracted hoof." - Tammy Nute
